REGULATION

PERSONNEL
7 June 1954

REGULATION OF AGENCY PROGRAMS AFFECTING
THE EMPLOYMENT, DEVELOPMENT, AND TENURE OF PERSONNEL

I. GENERAL

The Assistant Director for Personnel is responsible for the development and recommendation of policies, plans, and procedures governing the Agency's relationships with its employees.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

The following general responsibilities are prescribed in recognition of the fact that officials other than the Assistant Director for Personnel, particularly the Chief, Medical Staff, the Director of Security, and the Director of Training, have technical and professional responsibilities to the Director of Central Intelligence for functions which relate to personnel procedures.

- a. The Assistant Director for Personnel has over-all Agency responsibility for the determination of the suitability of applicants and employees.
- b. The Chief, Medical Staff, is responsible for providing professional medical and psychiatric services pertinent to making suitability determinations and for providing recommendations to the Assistant Director for Personnel based upon the results of such services.
- c. The Director of Training is responsible for providing testing and evaluation services for the Agency as required by the Assistant Director for Personnel.
- d. The Director of Security is responsible for developing such suitability data concurrently with conducting security investigations as are desired by the Assistant Director for Personnel, and for providing the Assistant Director for Personnel with information concerning the suitability of individuals for employment by the Central Intelligence Agency, other than loyalty or security risk data as set forth in Executive Order 10450, or the implementing Agency Regulation [REDACTED]
- e. In any case where the Assistant Director for Personnel disagrees with the recommendations of the Chief, Medical Staff, the Director of Security, or the Director Training and proposes action which seems to be inconsistent with the professional and technical obligations of one of these officials to the Director of Central Intelligence, he shall, jointly with such official, request that the Director of Central Intelligence review the case and render a decision.
